Property Description

Interesting restoration project located in a beautiful position in the Langhe hills enjoying views of the countryside and mountains.

Perfect for those seeking a countryside, tranquil location.

A large Langhe stone farmhouse with project prepared and permissions already in place to immediately continue its restoration.

The property is surrounded by a vast area of land including plenty of flat areas to design a swimming pool area as required.

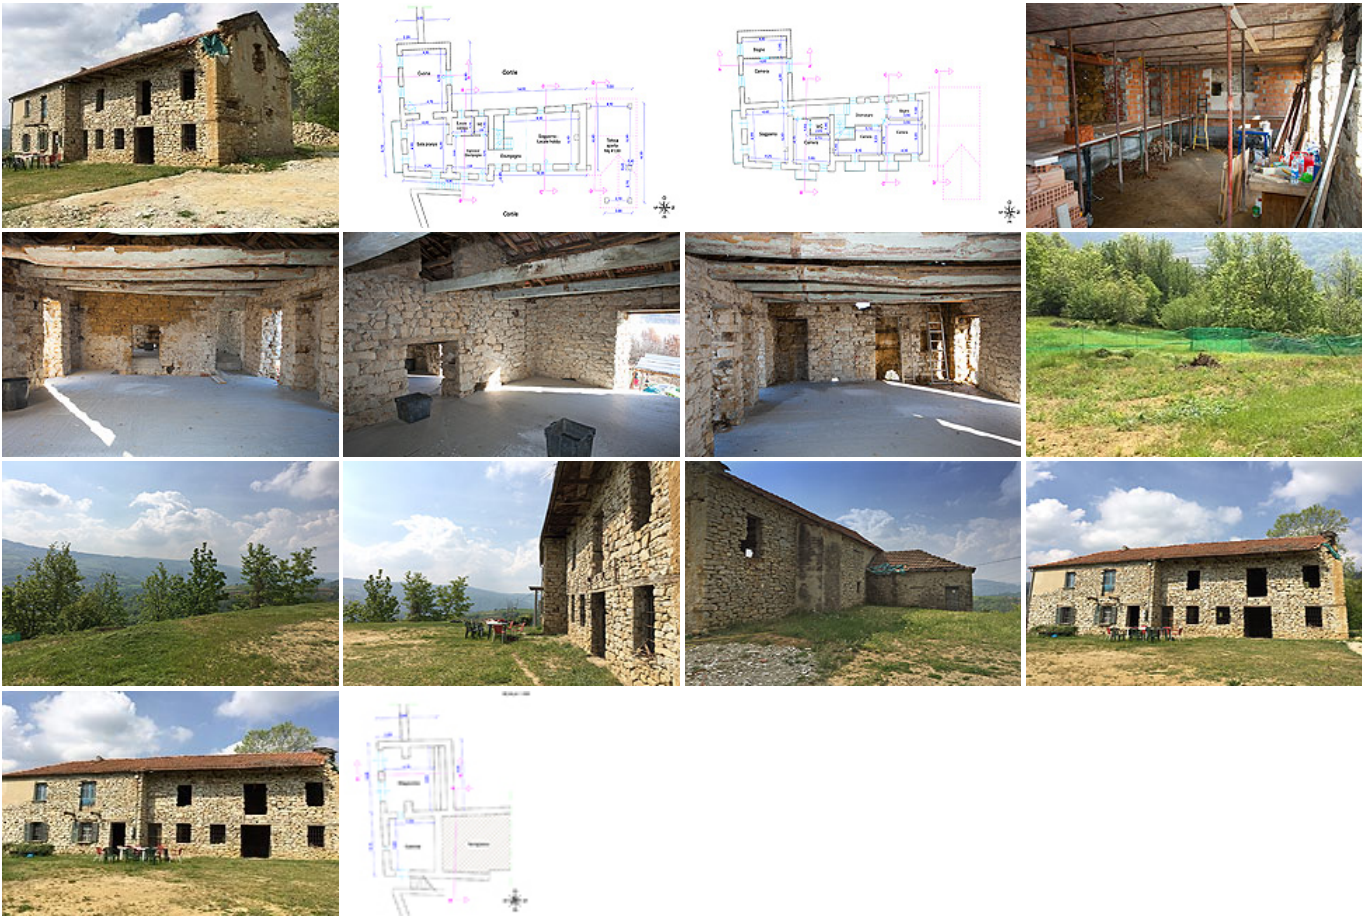

The project is to create a large family home with bedrooms but at this stage its also very flexible and can be simply changed to meet personal preferences and ideas.

The size of the property could lend itself towards a business activity or maybe you choose just to restore to create a luxury family home.

Its location is hidden in the countryside, but just a short drive from nearby towns

Perfect to relax in the countryside and also integrate in the delights of the Italian lifestyle.
